

Julian Windhövel

University of Erfurt – Department of History
Nordhäuser Straße 63 – 99089 Erfurt
julian.windhoevel@gmail.com – +49 361 737 2823

EDUCATION

- Since 2023 Transfer to the University of Erfurt to finish the dissertation as a part of DFG funded SFB 294 “Structural Change of Property”, Subprojects A02: “Property in one’s own body and in the bodies of others in the United States between the eighteenth and twentieth century” under the supervision of Prof. Dr. Jürgen Martschukat and Prof. Dr. Norbert Finzsch.
- 2020 Re-orientation of the PhD project under Prof. Dr. Norbert Finzsch with a new subject and new working title: „„The Only Laboring Class We Have” – Planter Class und Freedmen’s Bureau während der frühen Reconstruction in Louisiana, 1864-1868“ (engl.: „„The Only Laboring Class We Have” – Planter Class and Freedmen’s Bureau during early Reconstruction in Louisiana, 1864-1868“)
- 2015 PhD Early Modern History, under Prof. Dr. Michael Zeuske and Prof. Dr. Norbert Finzsch, University of Cologne
PhD project: Slave ownership as a defining part of the white identity in British colonial Jamaica (working title)
- 2014 Magister Artium, Medieval and Early Modern History, Prehistory and Roman-Provincial Archaeology, University of Cologne
- 2009 Grundstudium (Basic studies, BA equivalent), Medieval and Early Modern History, Prehistory and Roman-Provincial Archaeology, University of Cologne

HONORS AND GRANTS

- 2019 "a.r.t.e.s. international – for all" Travel grant for research stays, London, England, United Kingdom

ARCHIVAL RESEARCH

- In Person The National Archives in London
The British Library
The City of London Archives
The Senate House Library of the University of London
- Online British Online Archives

Freedmen's Bureau Digital Collection, National Museum of African American History and Culture (Smithsonian Online Virtual Archives, Smithsonian Institution)

PROFESSIONAL APPOINTMENTS

- 2023 Research Assistant SFB 294 “Structural Change of Property”, Subprojects A02: “Property in one’s own body and in the bodies of others in the United States between the eighteenth and twentieth century.”
- 2017 - 2023 Administration assistant in the accounts department of the Evangelischer Kirchenkreis Krefeld-Viersen (district of the protestant church Krefeld Viersen)
- 2012 - 2013 Primary Instructor of the tutorial: Introduction to Prehistoric Archaeology, Department of Prehistoric Archaeology, University of Cologne
- 2011 Co-Instructor of the tutorial: Introduction to Prehistoric Archaeology, Department of Prehistoric Archaeology, University of Cologne
- 2010 - 2012 Student Assistant to Prof. Dr. Heinz-Werner Dämmer, Department of Prehistoric Archaeology, University of Cologne (responsible for the organization of excursions, field trips, exams and lecture assistants)
- 2009 - 2014 Student Assistant in the Library of the Department of Prehistoric Archaeology, University of Cologne (responsible for the purchase and organization of new monographs)
- 2004 - 2017 Event management and organizational assistants of concerts and other cultural events as part of the project “Citykirche” of the der Evangelischen Friedenskirchengemeinde Krefeld (Protestant Church of Peace, Krefeld)

PUBLICATIONS

Geschichte der Evangelischen Friedenskirche, Krefeld, In: Dautermann, C., Die Heimat, Krefelder Jahrbuch, Jahrgang 81, Krefeld 2010

TEACHING AND OUTREACH

- 2020 Introduction to Archaeology – Methods of modern Archaeology, Overview of Prehistory (Palaeolithic – Iron Age), CyberAkademie der Deutschen SchülerAkademie
- 2019 Culture Clash - A historico-linguistic perspective on language and culture contacts, Deutsche SchülerAkademie

MEMBERSHIPS

Southern Historical Association
Organization of American Historians

CONFERENCES

- 2023 Counterrevolution or a Failure of the Democratic Process? The Efforts of white Planters to Maintain the Old South and Black Resistance in Reconstruction Era Louisiana (89th Annual Meeting of the Southern Historical Association)
- 2022 'Counterrevolution' – The Efforts of white Planters to Maintain the Old South and Black Resistance in Reconstruction Era Louisiana (Legal and Social History Workshop, Easter Term 2022, University of Cambridge)
- 2022 'Counterrevolution' – The Efforts of white Planters to Maintain the Old South and Black Resistance in Reconstruction Era Louisiana (Roosevelt Institute International Spring PhD Seminar, Middleburg)
- 2022 'Slavery after Slavery' – The Effort of white Planters to Maintain the Old South and Black Resistance in Reconstruction Era Louisiana (Scottish Association for the Study of America Annual Conference)
- 2022 "The Only Laboring Class We Have" – The Efficacy of Federal Support of- and Violent White Opposition to the Black Socio-Economic Struggle in Reconstruction Era Louisiana (Annual African, African American, and Diaspora Studies, James Madison University, Harrisonburg, VA)
- 2022 'Slavery after Slavery' – The Effort of white Planters to Maintain the Old South and Black Resistance in Reconstruction Era Louisiana (LSE HY509 International History Research Seminar, London School of Economics and Political Science)
- 2021 Washington in Louisiana – Political, Economic and Judicial Interactions between Former Slaves and Federal Representatives and the White Backlash in the Bayou State, 1865-1868 (Workshop: Transnational History and Anti-Slavery Movements, Fernuniversität Hagen)
- 2021 The Place of Slave Ownership within Social Identity (Southern Exchanges: October Edition, Southern Historical Association)
- 2021 The Correlation between Physical Distance to Federal Troops and Compliance with Freedmen Labour Regulations in Postbellum Louisiana (Cambridge AHRC International Conference, Panel 10A: Physical Distance and the State)